e+CancerCare Acquired by Kohlberg & Company, L.L.C.

Nashville, TN – e+CancerCare (the “Company”) has been acquired by Kohlberg & Company, L.L.C. (“Kohlberg”), a leading private equity firm based in Mount Kisco, New York.

e+CancerCare is one of the leading operators of outpatient cancer care centers in the nation. The Company supports its patients with a range of services including radiation therapy, chemotherapy, and PET/CT cancer imaging. The Company offers a unique approach to cancer care through a proprietary coordinated care program which helps guide and support patients throughout the continuum of cancer care. This complementary and integrated approach to care provides its patients a range of additional support services including patient counseling, physical therapy, and alternative therapies such as massage, acupuncture, and nutritional support.

Founded in 2002 and headquartered in Nashville, TN, the Company operates 16 outpatient cancer care centers in Wyoming, Florida, Georgia, Texas, Oklahoma, and Colorado.

Timothy M. Petrikin, Chief Executive Officer of e+CancerCare notes “We are excited to partner with Kohlberg, who shares our vision of expanding our cancer care services while maintaining our commitment to quality patient care and clinical excellence. Through their prior healthcare experience, Kohlberg understands the industry and fully supports our comprehensive care approach. We will be able to leverage their experience as we continue to enhance our cancer care services.”

Backed by the financial strength of Kohlberg’s private equity funds, the acquisition is expected to accelerate e+CancerCare’s ability to grow organically as well as through acquisitions. Evan Wildstein, Partner of Kohlberg, said “Tim and his team have done an excellent job building a best-in-class network of integrated, outpatient cancer care centers. e+CancerCare is a leader in the cancer care industry and is poised for continued growth as a platform for consolidation. We look forward to working closely with management and supporting their vision for the continued growth and leadership of the business.”
